Social 20-1 learn through re-enactment

Jr. Girls Basketball team take Silver medal at CENAA's

Congratulations to the Jr. Girls Basketball team who won the Silver Medal at the CENAA tournament March 1 & 2. Well done Girls!

The boys played great as well and took 5th in CENAA standings.

Sr. Girls win playoff game against Consort to go to Zones

The Sr. Girls basketball team finished off their season with an outstanding win against Consort on Tuesday, March 5. They then headed to Zones in Camrose on March 8 & 9. They met some tough teams, but played great! Thank you to our sponsors Nitro Services, Hashbrowns and The Cherry Farm who sponsored their warm-up gear!

Wake-a-thon raises $1635 for local charities

A large group of students and staff stayed at the school overnight on March 7 to hold a Wake-a-thon to raise funds for The Innisfail Food Bank and The Mustard Seed. They had a great time and ended up raising a large amount of money for these charities! Thank you to Mrs. Milne (organizer too), Mr. Burton, Mrs. Fehr, Miss Pereira, Mrs. Gagne and Mr. Adamuk for hanging out, playing games, and of course, staying awake!
